WERF Nutrient Research Documents as of 12-31-15.docx

Mike,

I sent this to you before but perhaps it bounced back. One more document coming your way.

Mike,

Not sure whether I forwarded this to you or not. This is a list of updated treatment technologies and recent WERF documents that might be helpful to look at.

Tina and Mario, it has been a crazy busy month and in going through my to do list, I realized that I did not send you the requested information on the WE&RF recent nutrient technical documents or the latest EPA/ORD Ponds Design Manual. So please accept my apologies for the delay.

I am attaching the 2011 Ponds Manual and a list of the WERF Nutrients documents published beginning in 2016 with a description of each project. A complete list of all WE&RF Nutrients products is available on their website as well as the actual products which could be ordered online. Since I serve as a member of the WE&RF Nutrients research team, please let me know should there be a particular product that you need and I can see if I can get you an e-copy. Thanks.

Phil
